

C.P. No. 479 of 2013

06.08.2014 The petitioners are absent on repeated calls. Nor any steps has been taken on their behalf either. This is a joint petition U/s. 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act for dissolution of marriage by passing a decree with mutual consent moved by the parties on 13.09.2013 and since then the parties have been found absent. A joint petition for divorce automatically stands deleted on expiry of eighteen months from the date of its presentation, unless it is moved by the parties jointly for second time. Hence the joint petition for divorce with mutual consent stands dismissed.
