J U D G M E N T

The petitioners have filed this application Under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for divorce by mutual consent.

2. The case of the petitioners in brief is that their marriage was solemnized as per Hindu customs and tradition on 10.06.2011 and consummated in the house of the petitioner No.1 and led a happy conjugal life for two months. After two months of marriage, differences arose between them which could not be resolved and as such they have been living separately since 05.03.2012. Therefore, they have been living separately more than one year. The petition was filed more than eight months back i.e. on 09.10.2013. It is further averred that several attempts have been made by the family members, friends and well wishers for their reunion but in vain. It is further stated that both parties have exchanged their presentation and gift articles given at the time of marriage. As chance of reunion was remote they decided to dissolve the marriage by mutual consent. According to them, their consent has not been obtained by exercising fear, force, fraud, coercion or undue influence.

3. Both the petitioners were examined on oath as P.Ws. 1 and 2 respectively. They have stated unanimously that their marriage was solemnized on 06.10.2011 according to Hindu rites. Due to indelible temperament, and mental incompatibility and difference of opinion they have been living separately since 05.03.2012. Although their friends and relatives tried their best to reunite them, reconciliation was not possible. A chance of reunion was remote and having no other alternative both of them decided to dissolve the marriage by mutual consent.

4. Petitioner No. 2- stated that she has no claim of any alimony for past, present and future from the petitioner No. 1 towards her permanent alimony. In view of above admission by the petitioner No. 2, she is not entitled to get any further alimony from petitioner No.1. The petition has been filed more than eight months back i.e. on 09.10.2013. Both of them stated on oath that they have been living separately 05.03.2012 and they have not been able to live together and they have mutually agreed that their marriage should be dissolved. The Court should not stand bar to their future life. The petition of the petitioners succeeds. Hence, it is ordered;
